Camp Rules

The User Group leader will communicate the camp rules to all campers prior to arrival. All campers are expected to abide by these rules:

1. Park in designated parking areas only.
2. Protect against damages to camp property. Report any property damages to camp staff. Assume financial responsibility for destruction.
3. Respect and preserve all wildlife, plants, trees, and other living things. Do not take rocks or other natural elements from camp property.
4. No smoking, vaping, drugs or alcohol.
5. Keep camp free of litter.
6. No food in sleeping cabins.
7. Campfires in designated areas only. Fires are dependent on local and current fire restrictions.
8. Conserve water and energy, use only what you need.
9. Before meals, User Groups will set tables. After meals, User Groups will wipe down tables, sweep floors, and help with dishes.
10. Upon departure, sweep all buildings used, discard trash and replace liner, and sanitize beds and surfaces.
11. Respect the rights of camp neighbors and obey “No Trespassing Signs”.
12. Abide by the commonsense rules of courtesy and safety.

Supervision and Safety

The User Group will follow Camp Myrtlewood’s guidelines:

- All children must be supervised at all times.
- The Camp advises that the User Groups background check all adults supervising children.
- The Camp advises that User Groups provide a certified lifeguard during water activities.
- The User Group is expected to provide its own health care service, emergency transportation, and supplies.
- The Camp advises the User Group to provide written parental consent for the treatment of injuries to campers under the age of 18.
- The Camp advises the User Group to keep all prescription medication under lock and key. Medication should only be dispensed within health care procedures approved by a physician and agreed to by the camper’s parents.

Other Notes

During Junior Grange Camp cell phone use will be limited to a Good Morning and Good Night call to parents/guardians. Junior Grange Camp supervisors will secure cellphones during non-use times. Cell phone photos will be at the Junior Grange Camp supervisor’s discretion.
